All transactions will occur by use of money order or cashier check, no cash transactions. I will provide all verification of transactions as directed to my supervising U.S. Probation Officer.

CAUSE

On October 3, 2007, the undersigned officer conducted an unscheduled personal home contact at Ronald Burger's residence. Upon arrival, a large amount of vehicles were observed parked around the residence that were not present when the undersigned had previously been to Mr. Burger's residence for a prerelease investigation or while Mr. Burger was on pretrial supervision. When questioned about the vehicles, Mr. Burger initially indicated he was storing them for a friend. When questioned further, Mr. Burger admitted that he had initially lied to the undersigned officer. He then claimed his wife actually purchased the vehicles for him to work on and sell. At that time, Mr. Burger was directed that he was not to do anything with the vehicles and that he was to provide additional documentation to the undersigned for review. It was learned that Mr. Burger had actually purchased some of the vehicles while he was at work release as a Bureau of Prisons' inmate.

Per Mr. Burger's conditions of release, he is not permitted to work for cash; however, he was attempting to do so by restoring and selling vehicles from his home. He was advised this information would be provided to the Court. Mr. Burger has agreed to sell all of the vehicles at his residence that he purchased while he was serving his sentence imposed by Your Honor. Of concern, is the fact that Mr. Burger was aware of the large amount of restitution he owes, as well as his conditions of supervision, and yet he still attempted to make money that would not have been detected if he had not been monitored by the probation office. Of further concern, is the fact that he lied to the undersigned when confronted regarding this information.

The proposed modification appears appropriate to address this violation conduct and is agreed to by Mr. Burger as evidenced by the attached signed Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
